Assessing Resources: Why Is It Important And How To Incorporate It Into Your Program

June 11, 2020
Ways to Participate

Have a question? Type it in the Question & Answer window:

1. Open the Q&A window.
2. Type your question into the Q&A box. Click Send.
3. The host will reply back either via text in the Q&A window or will answer your question live.

Have a Best Practice? Type it in the Chat window

1. Open the Chat window.
2. Type your best practice. Tap Enter on keyboard.
The Panelists

George W Hatch, Jr
Executive Director

Jennifer Anderson Warwick
Accreditation Consultant

Mike Miller
Day Job: PD, Creighton Univ (Nebraska)
Volunteer Role: Board Member

Jeff McDonald
Day Job: PD, Tarrant Co College (Texas)
Volunteer Role: Board Member

Patricia Tritt
Day Job: Director of Instruction, AMR Learning
Volunteer Role: Past Board Member
We will answer the questions

What does it mean to assess resources?

What tools should you use?

How often should a program assess its resources?
Resources
www.coaemsp.org

“The Resource Assessment Matrix is a vital tool for programs and helps them get the resources it needs.”

- Avanotic Program Director

Quick Links
- Resources Assessment
- Terminal Competency Form
- Medical Director Student Review
- Graduate and Employee Surveys
- Administration
- Self-Study Report Instruments
- Patient Education Tracking Tools
- Advisory Committee Agenda and Checklist
- Program Evaluation Tools
- High-Risk Exam
- Resources

CoAEMSP
Credible education through accreditation

Program Review and Analysis

CoAEMSP is the only professional organization for the Emergency Medical Services Professionals.

Indicators & Evaluations
1. Review family practice, critical care, and specialty care programs and ensure they are evaluated with sufficient frequency
2. Develop and maintain an effective, comprehensive program to evaluate the core competencies
3. Evaluate the impact of the program on patient care by measuring outcomes
4. Evaluate the training of the program directors at individual programs
5. Ensure that the program director is qualified to perform the evaluation

Clinical and Research Opportunities
1. Informal reviews should be conducted for each study
2. Provide a comprehensive professional experience program

Eligibility
- Programs are eligible for accreditation
- The application process is open to all programs

Criteria
1. Program must demonstrate the ability to meet the standards
2. The program must be reviewed and approved by the CoAEMSP Board
3. The program must have a designated program director
4. The program must have a comprehensive evaluation

CoAEMSP is the only professional organization for the Emergency Medical Services Professionals.

Program Evaluation Tools
- CoAEMSP is the only professional organization for the Emergency Medical Services Professionals.

Resources
- CoAEMSP is the only professional organization for the Emergency Medical Services Professionals.

Credible education through accreditation

www.coaemsp.org
Tools to Assess Resources

www.coaemsp.org > ACCREDITATION > RESOURCE LIBRARY

- Program Resource Survey - Students
- Program Resource Survey - Program Personnel
  - program faculty
  - Medical Director
  - Advisory Committee members
- Resource Assessment Matrix (RAM)
10 Components Evaluated

1. Program faculty
2. Medical Director
3. Support personnel
4. Curriculum
5. Financial resources
6. Facilities
7. Hospital and clinical resources
8. Capstone field internship resources
9. Learning resources
10. Physician interaction
What assessments are required?

What tools/questions are required?

How do you use the Resource Assessment tool?

When is the RAM required?

What other assessments should a program incorporate?

What should the program do with the results?

How to get maximum participation?
Takeaways to Assessing Resources

- Program Director is responsible
- Programs must have a plan to survey students from all cohorts, faculty, Medical Director, and the Advisory Committee
- Assess resources annually
- Review and discuss the results with faculty, administration, Medical Director, and Advisory Committee
- RAM is one building block for program assessment and improvement
Accreditation is an everyday activity
Credit education through accreditation.
Thank you.